Rev. H. J. Conway, Superintendent

Sister Mary Joan, Principal

In Directing This School . . .

We are striving to make America worthy of God's favor.

We Present to Each Student the Opportunity

1. Of building a thoroughly Christ-like Character
 - a. By learning the truths of his religion
 - b. By practicing his religion in parish and school activities.
2. Of training his mind to cope with modern conditions
 - a. By learning the secular arts and sciences
 - b. By applying this knowledge in extra-curricular clubs and activities.
3. Of developing a strong, healthy body
 - a. By learning the rudiments of many competitive sports
 - b. By displaying these athletic skills in varsity and intramural competition.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

It seems only yesterday that we entered the half-finished structure that was later to be Central Catholic. Our classes were interrupted by the passing of brick elevators and the hammerings of the workmen. For nearly three months we dodged ladders and cans of paint, but finally the building was completed. Then upperclassmen took over at the beginning of the second semester and we were reduced to our proper state of vassalage. This biggest freshman class ever to enter CC was well represented among the scholastic monogram winners. A sizeable number of boys turned out for athletics and many girls joined the G.A.A. The basketball team won the State and National Championships. Our class officers for the first year were Dick Krouse, Carol Suelzer, Joan Arnold, and Dick Ham-brock.

We began the second lap of high school as "sophisticated sophomores". Again large numbers of the class won scholastic monograms, and again we won the State and National basketball championships.

Back we came in the fall of 1940 to begin our career as upperclassmen. Early in the year we selected Bob Huttinger, Mary Jane Berghoff, Catherine Schone and Dick Krouse as our junior class officers. That year we published the Shamrock, joined the Dramatic Club and appeared in plays. Our initial venture into the social whirl came when we sponsored a junior skating party in May. Then for the first time we were permitted to attend the prom and later the senior tea dance in June.

Still thinking of graduation as an obscure event, we returned for our last year at Central Catholic. We elected Tom Offerle, Mary Jane Berghoff, Dick Krouse, and Rita

VALEDICTORIAN AND SALUTATORIAN

Leading our class as it nears the coveted goal of graduation are DONALD STRODEL, Valedictorian, and RUTH BUESCHER, Salutatorian. For four years they have set the pace for their classmates in scholastic endeavors. Congratulations! May they continue to show the energy and perseverance which has brought them these honors.

Bobay as officers. The Shamrock appeared for the first time as a printed paper published by the senior journalism class. A tea dance proved successful, and another State Basketball Championship was added to our imposing record. Work began on the Echo and in quick succession came the Senior play, our annual lake party, and the senior prom. At last came graduation, the proper point from which to survey the past, judge the present, and estimate the future, before setting forth with renewed efforts.

Looking at the last year impersonally, we find it no more than another step in the school's progress. But, of course, it meant much more to us. This year and the three preceding years form in our lives a period that can never be equalled or repeated. Graduating as the charter class of the new Central Catholic, we proved that we are working to make America worthy of God's favor. The Senior Class History is merely an outline; the memories that it represents are within us.

THE JUNIOR CLASS—ITS RECORD

Having successfully advanced through the "green freshie" and "sophisticated sophomore" stages, the class of '43 moved on into the "wonderful junior" era and proved once again that the junior year is the year for accomplishment in all fields.

This class, well represented in all fields—scholastic, athletic, musical, and extra-curricular—way ably led by:

Jack ArnoldPresident

Gloria HarrisVice-President

James Skevington.....Treasurer

Loretta PutnamSecretary

Members of the junior class helping in school problems as Student Council members in addition to the class officers were: Rita Didrick, Betty Eifert, Anne Grimmer, Alfreda Kohne, Harold Le Master, Robert Oakes, Richard Phillipp.

The Student Spiritual Council provides for the spiritual advancement of the student body. These juniors proved their value by their wonderful work in this organization: Joan Arnold, Alberta Harber, Beth Linn, Joseph Shaner, John Welsch.

The following juniors as home room representatives lended a helping hand in organizing the Mission Society: Nancy Auer, Alice Giere, Lois Kintz, Monica Lomont, James Miller, James Weber, John Welsch.

Many welcomed athletes sprang up from this group. The class received many laurels for the honors won on the gridiron by: Avila, Bogenschutz, Butler, Giant, Grothouse, Helmsing, Hilker, Hipkind, Le Master, Miller, Murchland, Poinsette, Reilman, Skevington, Sullivan.

1942 was a successful year in basketball for Central Catholic due in part to the ability of the juniors who gained fame on the basketball court: Bogenchutz, Giant, Hipkind, Holthouse, Isaacs, Keenan, Miller, Roberts, Skevington.

Giant, Hipkind, Keenan, Roberts, and Skevington were members of the 1942 State Catholic championship squad.

The juniors were also well represented in musical activities and assisted in many pleasant programs. Those in the band were: Richard Alt, Frank Costner, Genevieve Dehner, John Eber, Richard Freygang, Richard Goetz, Jack Heinzelman, Leo Laier, William McClintock, Robert Miller, William Oberwitte, Dolores Sorg, Irene Wyss.

Many juniors chose the orchestra as an activity and helped make the orchestra a success in the true "junior spirit." They were: Richard Alt, Frank Costner, Genevieve Dehner, Tom Freiburger, Jack Heinzelman, Lorene Hoevel, Robert Miller, William Oberwitte, Dolores Sorg.

Raising their voices in song and presenting many enjoyable programs both for the student body and guests, the following juniors were Glee Club members: Clarence Giese, Jeanne Girardot, Joannette Heminger, Robert Leffers, Loretta Miller, Robert Miller, Carol Nussbaum, Fred Pitzen, Pierre Poinsette, Evelyn Slattery, Robert Tholen.

The class of '43 was also club-minded as is shown by their membership in the various clubs at Central Catholic. The juniors having membership in the Latin club were: Frank Costner, Stanley Hench, Richard Hilker, David Hipkind, Patricia Kaliker, Monica Lomont, William McClintock, Rita Meehan, Charles Poinsatte, Doris Reader, Jack Soshea, Robert Tholen, James Weber, Mary Catherine Wilhelm.

The newly formed Civics Club offers education in civic matters and among the charter members were: Jack Arnold, Richard Isaacs, Paul Peckham, Fred Pitzen, Raymond Rosenberger, Jack Soshea.

ROW 1: Joan Parisot, Mary Peckham, Dick Phillip, Fred Pitzen, Charles Poinsatte, Pierre Poinsatte, Georgianna Poiry, Walter Prezbindowski, Loretta Putnam.

Riedy, R. Reilman, R. Rosenberger, K. Saxton, E. Schlink, D. Shovlin, G. Skordos, D. Sorg, L. Suelzer, A. Wade, M. C. Wilhelm.

Part of the success of the Legion of Mary was due to these juniors, members of the organization: Catherine Armstrong, Joan Arnold, Joan Harkenrider, Marilyn Johns.

Showing their eagerness to do their part for defense, the following students acted as home room representatives for the Red Cross and helped Central Catholic to win first place in the city-wide exhibit of all Fort Wayne schools: Patricia Cass, Frank Costner, Richard Goetz, Patricia Jockel, John Knight, Catherine Leto, Mary Ellen Meier.

Thus another class has spent its junior year within the portals of Central Catholic. Wisely and strongly they have added the third floor to the structure of their character. They will carry on in their senior year to a glorious finish.

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

Let it be said that this is a rising generation. This fact is aptly displayed by the wide spread interest that the Sophomores have shown in the activities of Central Catholic.

Carrying the banner for the loyal followers of the Sophomore class are its officers:

President John Hartman

Vice-President James Bobay

Secretary Roseanne Schnieders

Treasurer John Zwierko

Now that the student council is well on its way to success, you will find these students ready, willing and able to cooperate with the plans and actions of the council: William Schnieder, Mary Lou Roberts, William Zimmer, Patricia Vodde, Katherine Allgeier, Mary Ann Scheffer, Jane Rush, Edward Rooney, John Taylor.

The Spiritual Council has accomplished innumerable projects this year and helping them have been the following Sophomores: Joan Hartman, Donald Tobin, William Hodde, Rita Ann Fox, James Wiegand.

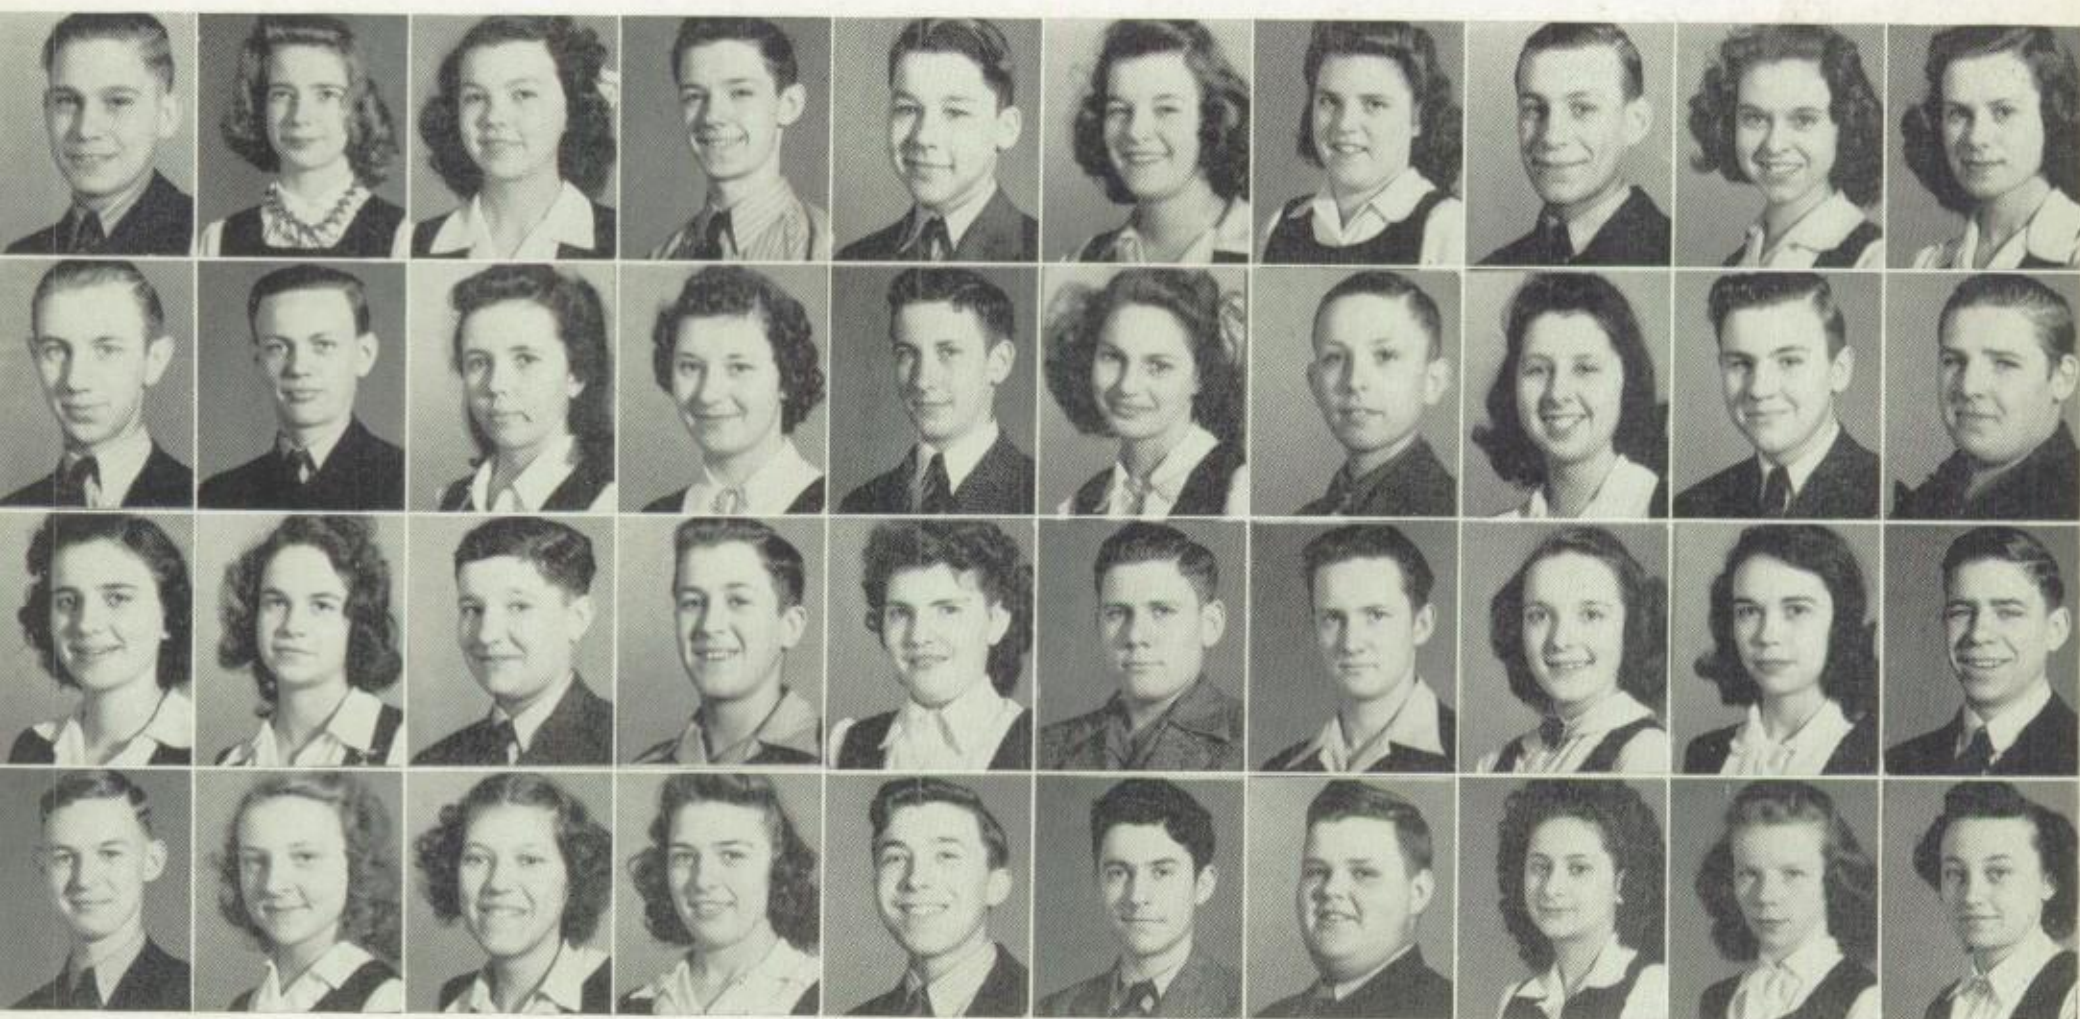

The newly organized Mission Club has the full support of the Sophomores in the persons of: June Fitzgerald, Eileen Huber, Betty Ellen Murphy, James Kartholl, Mary Catherine Black, Richard Widmann, Rosemary Reuss, Maxine Flory.

Having two years of service are the twirlers who have been representing Central Catholic very actively all through the city. They are: Betty Skevington, Roseanne Schnieders, Mary Stanford, Alice Macey, Paul Ueber.

The Sophomores have been very active in the band of Central Catholic. Here are the loyal members from the Sophomore class: James Vachon, Cecelia Murphy, Carl Breman, Mary Anne Schlink, Betty June Neuer, Alexine Banet, Dolores Bailey, Rita Ann Fox, Paul Detweiler, Ralph Giese, Francis Herber, Deveda Hebb, Karl Reed, Roberta Hartman.

Few in number but great in ability are the members of the Orchestra: Theresa Emanuel, Mary Anne Herber, Robert Hartman, Gertrude Rogawski, Jean Lamp, Betty June Neuer, Rita Ann Fox, Deveda Hebb.

Recognition should be given to those few students who are active in both Band and Orchestra: Robert Hartman, Betty June Neuer, Rita Ann Fox, Deveda Hebb.

THE FRESHMAN CLASS HISTORY

Freshmen aren't green anymore! At least Central Catholic's freshmen aren't. The upperclassmen made this astonishing discovery during the course of the past year, when the freshmen, instead of turning the proverbial hue, nearly sprouted purple and gold in their eagerness to show their school spirit.

From all over the city, and the surrounding territory, this enthusiastic group converged on Cental Catholic early in last September. At first they were a little lost in the maze of corridors, and masses of upperclassmen; but after several days of organization, they were established and ready for work.

This alert class began their activities of the year officially with the election of officers. Those chosen to lead this stellar class were:

Jane Congdon.....President

Monica GladieuxVice-President

Charles WalkerSecretary

Dan BoylanTreasurer

Each home room also elected a representative to serve on the Student Council and to aid the officers in the performance of their duties. They included: Robert Bangert, Patricia Gremaux, Kenneth Harber, Joan Beverforden, Ralph Deitche, Mary Wurstner, William Dinnen, Joseph Naumcheff, Colette Mohl.

Once successfully launched, the "first termers" turned their attention and efforts to aiding the establishment of several new groups at Central Catholic. Foremost, perhaps, among these, was the formation of the Mission Society. Each room again chose one of their number to represent them at the meetings of the organization. The amount of earnest effort displayed by the Freshman class in this work, shows that their room representatives were well chosen: Marilyn Ort, Bernice Spranger, Bernice Gebhart, Joan Jacquay, Mildred Westrick, Thomas Bennett, Bill Fisher, Bob Ryan, Margaret Trentadue.

The Freshmen not only did their part for the missions, but they also continually amazed the upper classmen by the quantity and quality of materials they turned out for the Red Cross exhibits. The spark of activities in each room was the Red Cross Chairman. They included Elaine Allen, Suzanne Perry, John Stalte, Norma Gerhardstein, John Steffel, Bernadette Didrick, Eugene Manley, Corrine Griffith.

In the musical line the freshmen also made a fine showing for their class. Poor Orpheus will soon lose his fame, if our "freshies" continue to improve their already excellent musical talents. In tryouts for the band and orchestra, this class succeeded in placing a substantial percentage of their number in these organizations.

The freshmen band members numbered: Robert Adang, Monica Gladieux, John Engle, Paul Steinbacher, Lois Littlefield, Bernan Kuyoth, Maurice Ehinger, Virginia Fisher, Kenneth Merz.

The orchestra included these freshmen: John Steffel, Robert Morken, Joseph Weingartner, Catherine Mattes.

ROW 4: Ruth Fox, Phyllis Frecker, Julia Freiburger, Jeanne Freistroffer, Madalina Freon, Virginia Freon, Pauline Freygang, Ruth Friedman, Patricia Furge, Phyllis Garbin.

Those eager individuals who chose to serve in both the band and the orchestra were: Eugene Till, Kathleen Orth, Joseph Naumcheff.

Not to be outdone in any line, the freshmen placed a twirler in our marching band in the person of Lavandah Crouch.

Nothing musical was sacred from the freshmen, not even the Glee Club. It was a small but select group of voices that was added to the Glee Club on the arrival of the newest class. They included: Virginia Fisher, Marilyn Braun, Joan Kell, Colette Mohl, Mercedes Mettler, Carol Sawyer, Georgia Ann Shaner.

In the field of athletics, this newest of Central Catholic's classes also did itself proud.

If the past year has been any indication of what we may expect from them, our athletic future will be bright indeed.

Several of the Freshmen boys' springtime thoughts turned to the pleasures of chasing an elusive pigskin. These valiant warriors included: Jack Weaver, Bob Ryan, Jack Krouse, Charles Butts, Charles Walker, Carl Biesada, Jack White, Joseph Linn, Paul Grimmer, Joe Parks, Gene Manly, Leslie Logan, Charles Kesterson, Paul Hoffman, Robert Weikart.

Nor were the freshmen, concentrating on one sport. Spring also found the freshman basketball league becoming, with every room eagerly participating. Room 103, captained by Charles Walker, finally succeeded in winning the freshman title, edging out rooms 104, 201, and 203 by only one game.

The boys by no means had a monopoly on sport enthusiasm. Loads of vim, vigor, and love of the great outdoors, was displayed by the freshmen members of the Girls' Athletic Association. These hearty young misses, 130 in number, followed through the strenuous program of activities—hikes, ping pong, basketball, swimming, skating, bowling—with zest and earnestness.

Outstanding among these girls were the freshmen triangle winners: Mary Saxton, Elizabeth Hoagburg, Joan Kell, Ruth Nichter, Gene Marie Keller, Mary Becker, Barbara Bonahoom, Juanita Cox, and Mildred Westrick.

Scholastically, the freshmen led the school. During the entire year they consistently placed more of their members on the Honor Roll than any other class. The number of freshman monogram winners is at first surprising, but after viewing their record as a whole, it is only what could have been expected of them. The honor marked included:

Robert Bangert
William Fisher

Spiritually, socially, physically, and mentally, the freshmen class of 1942 has proven itself well equipped for the task ahead of it. At times the work may be difficult, the hours long, or the activities tedious, but this class has shown itself capable of great things. Looking into the future we prophesy success and popularity for the Seniors of '45.

is available for consultation every Friday and has given us timely "pep talks", trying to bring out how the hours of our school life are but a moment in the span of Existence—but what an important moment! Character is built or torn down, we become Spiritual "MacArthurs" or "Quislings" in exactly the same proportion as we build up or tear down the school spirit at C. C. The spirit which demands that God and America be proud of us.

DIRECTORS OF OUR SPIRITUAL DEVELOPMENT

with unfailing regularity has broken the silence at three minutes of three and in concise, clear, practical instructions has shown us how to relate our everyday life to the Commandments of God and to the Precepts of the Church. If Father Gabriel's talks could be termed the spice of our spiritual diet then surely Father Manoski's instructions were the much needed staple foods.

THE SPIRITUAL COUNCIL . . .

Catholic Action In Fact

Advancing steadily with the irresistible force of a landslide, the Students' Spiritual Council has been making itself felt at Central Catholic during the second year of its existence. In the course of the past year, it has grown not only in the number of members, but also in the power and scope of its projects.

Early in the year the group elected Thomas Doriot and Beth Lynn to the offices of President and Secretary, respectively. Father Cross and Sister Mary Clare were again appointed moderators and the Council began its work in earnest. Posters were made and displayed, Christmas baskets were collected, short, pointed talks were given, retreat booklets the Stations of the Cross were printed and distributed, and the Guard of Honor was re-established.

It was in Lent, however, that the Council launched its greatest project, the "Go to Mass" campaign. The strict enforcement of school laws during this campaign gained for the Council, the respect, if not the affection of the student body. The early morning quiet of the school corridors resulting from these efforts has been beneficial to the students and school order.

Central Catholic looks to the Students' Spiritual Council for great things. The school has not, and will not be disappointed.

LEGIO MARIAE... MORE CATHOLIC ACTION

"We fly to thy patronage, O holy Mother of God; despise not our prayers in our necessities, but ever deliver us from all dangers, O glorious and blessed Virgin."

Another year has flown past and the graduating members of the Legion realize the dangers which they face. But they know where to go for help. Under the staunch guidance of Father Frawley and Sister Laurence the Legion has enjoyed one of its most fruitful years. The main activities of the Legion are three-fold; its members visit the sick at St. Josephs Hospital, they conduct the May devotions here at Central Catholic, and they distribute magazines and pamphlets at the railroad stations. The Legion has as its aims the personal sanctification of its members and the spreading of devotion to Mary, the Mother of God. To the graduating members of this charter organization of Central Catholic the regular Monday night meeting will be missed greatly. To these members the Legion has become a part of their high-school career.

One of the most impressive ceremonies at Central Catholic was held under the sponsorship of the Legion of Mary this year. It was the enactment of the "Living Rosary" which we hope will become a custom at Central Catholic. In the coming years the Legion of Mary will endeavor to help even more in the development of a vigorous spiritual program at the school, which is so dear to Christ and His Blessed Mother.

THE MISSION SOCIETY

The organization of the Saint Anthony's Mission Society of the C.S.M.C. was a step forward in the development of religious activities at Central Catholic. Under the direction of Sister Maureen Therese, and the officers—Carl Elward, James Miller, Mary Jane Lauer, and James Kartholl, the society has been exceptionally industrious in aiding the missions.

Its inaugural activity was the selling of Christmas cards; part of the proceeds were used as stipends for the Friday Mass which is offered for the intention of vocations. In January a successful stamp drive was held through the school and 117,840 stamps were collected.

On February 11, 12, and 13, students were seen wearing bright red hearts, sold by the society to acquire funds to aid the missionary Sisters of Providence in Kaifeng, China.

Through its efforts text books were supplied to catechists in Nevada, Catholic soldiers were furnished with rosaries and rosary cases, and copies of OUR SUNDAY VISITOR were sent to camp.

Late in May, a medical sample drive was held to obtain medical supplies for the missions.

This group has made decided headway in its first year, and we hope that it will continue successfully throughout the years at Central Catholic.

During the school year, the entire student body looks forward with anticipation to the publication of the annual. The Echo is the climax of a year's activities.

The value of a yearbook cannot be measured by the sale of subscriptions, but by the thoroughness, accuracy and understanding with which it presents the school, the students, and the students' activities. Whether or not we have accomplished this aim, remains to be seen. In the years after graduation when the real test of value comes, it is our hope that this Echo will bring back fond memories.

Central Catholic's monthly student publication The Shamrock, made its debut into print with the first issue of the 1941-1942 school year on October 27.

A printed school paper, an ambition of the school for three years, became a reality when a Journalism class was inaugurated in the school and student response to a subscription campaign warranted the added expense involved.

The members of the Journalism class accepted the privilege of publishing the paper. Under the able guidance of Sister Catherine Joseph, the Journalism class teacher, and Father Cross, the faculty advisor, the paper has progressed and is now certain of being the permanent school news organ.

The high principles and standards that the paper is noted for, if followed, will insure the quality of the succeeding editions, and it is hoped that this will form the skeleton on which a much larger and more complete paper will be built. For most of its issues in its first year the paper was limited to four pages, but a more ambitious program is planned for the following years when it is hoped to obtain membership and high ranking in the National Catholic Press Association.

James O'Connor and Carol Suelzer, as co-editors, helped to shape the editorial policy in their friendly but controversial letters.

The ever popular gossip column was authorized by Connie Mettler and Rosemary Fuhs. They made "Gwendolyn" the student outlet for all local "dirt". Sports were capably handled by Dick Krouse and Jerry Dehner.

Every few weeks the student council meets with Father Conway, the faculty adviser, to discuss the various problems and activities which constantly arise in the swift moving cycle of a large high school.

The council is composed of the officers of each class plus a student representative selected from each homeroom. Tom Offerle, as president of the senior class assumes the presidential responsibilities of this organization. Mary Jane Berghoff, Richard Krouse, and Rita Bobay, the vice-president, secretary, and treasurer, respectively, assist Tom in his duties.

Through the plans and efforts of the student council, the annual football dance and the spring tea dance were a great success. They also planned this year's senior prom. Various other problems, including the Friday morning rush to the cafeteria, have been solved through the united efforts of these citizens of tomorrow.

SCHOLASTIC MONOGRAMS

In furthering its aim of making America worthy of God's favor, Central Catholic has concentrated on the task of graduating students who are capable of taking their place in the world. This task is accomplished by encouraging the student to do better work and by developing his ambition.

The winning of a scholastic monogram is the goal toward which each student aims. Reaching the goal is not easy. It is made difficult so that the student may gain more than the monogram itself in the winning of it.

Much stress is placed on effort and attitude in the winning of scholastic monograms. To possess one of these monograms the student must also do better than average work in his studies. To receive a scholastic monogram a student must have attained High Honors at least three times while maintaining 90 per cent in his effort and attitude.

Most students from Central Catholic do not win monograms. We cannot say though that this majority achieve nothing in their year's work. All C. C. students learn to apply themselves to given tasks and thus have the opportunity to develop their characters.

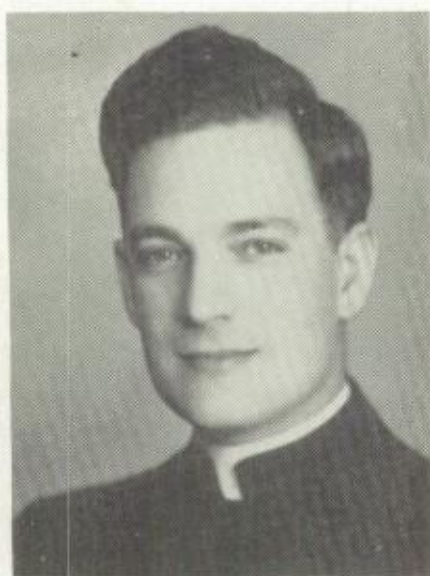

A monogram on a student's sweater means not only that he has had high marks on a card, but it means that he has given himself to the task of learning and in so doing has improved his moral, mental, and physical habits.

MONOGRAM

FATHER MILLER

That's "Our" BAND

And it is one of which we can be justly proud. This year the band was successful in every manner.

Father Miller, ably assisted by Sister Mary Huberta, was back at his usual post and turned in an exceptional job as director.

Appearing at our many athletic contests, the band made a colorful sight in their new purple and gold military uniforms. They climaxed their athletic contest appearances with a fine musical performance at the State Catholic tournament.

The Tri-State contest was no exception to the band's onward march. They received the highest rating possible in the advanced band section.

To help the organization of our well trained group of musicians, a Band Club was formed. This gave the members a chance to govern themselves.

Bigger and better than ever, "our" band advanced another step toward being the best one in Fort Wayne.

The ORCHESTRA

"Improvement" has been the watchword of Central Catholic's orchestra during the past year, and thanks to the splendid efforts of Father Miller and Sister Mary Huberta, every program was successful. Co-operation of all the members by faithful attendance at the tri-weekly practices was another very solid reason for the outstanding achievements of the organization.

As always, quality was stressed more than quantity in the orchestra. There are thirty-one members in the group with all four classes well represented. Although six members are in the graduating class, many excellent additions will be made next year.

The group furnished music for many activities throughout the year. Two of the Catholic lectures, the school plays, and the Lettermen's banquet were only a few of their many appearances.

At the annual music department concert in May, the orchestra gave a good example of their "Improvement" by rendering their numbers with almost professional perfection.

When commencement exercises were held, the combined band and orchestra gave a final show for all graduates to long remember.

GLEE CLUB

Central Catholic's Glee Club, with an ever increasing membership, is completing its second year of existence. Much benefit has been derived from this organization, both for the participants and the student body as a whole. The members have to sacrifice much in giving up their noon hours on three days a week for practice sessions so that their fellow students may enjoy the really fine programs which were presented.

All the members of the club who graduate this year can be proud of the fact that they, the charter class of Central Catholic High, were privileged to pioneer in this undertaking which will be continued down through the years of the school's existence.

Of course we will not forget the untiring efforts of Sister Mary Huberta, who is the morale "builder upper" and founder of the Glee Club.

DRAMATIC LETTER WINNERS

THE DRAMATIC CLUB

Swiftly forward, year after year, steps a new institution in a new school—our C. C. Masque and Wig Club. Now, more than ever before, we need strong, aggressive, Catholic youths to cultivate the ability to "hold their own" in this world of chaos. And what could train them better than C. C.'s public speaking and dramatics?

More than one hundred students came through initiation with "flying colors", to take their stand in this popular organization. On memorable occasions all through the year, students of dramatics have well expressed themselves to the student body—from serious addresses to comical pep-sessions! At the monthly meetings, members take an active part in the discussions by adhering to parliamentary law. The remainder of the evening is spent in entertainment.

In the course of the year, the club presented three performances. From November 16 to 18 was presented the "All American Family," a human interest comedy. Following this, on February 15 to 17 was presented a hilarious gay nineties review, "Remember When", written by members of the Dramatics Club. It consisted of music, a vaudeville act, and an unforgettable "Mellodramy." The theater season ended with the Seniors' presentation of a three-act comedy, "What a Life," enacted on May 10 and 11. This play had a double cast, one giving a performance each evening.

The outstanding social function of the year was the Dramatic and Latin Club dance held at the Knights of Columbus Hall on May 8. Johnny Rather's orchestra played for the event.

The supervisor of the Dramatic Club is Father Schnurr. He was assisted by President Robert Drennan, Vice-President Stanley Hudelson, Secretary Phyllis Hartman, Treasurer Doris Reader, Critic Constance Weingartner, and Marshal Godfrey Strack.

Such a diligent club has every reason to be even more successful in the future!

SENIOR PLAY

The senior play, one of the most successful ever presented, broke records both in attendance and in acting ability. Rev. H. J. Schnurr, teacher of dramatics and public speaking, directed the casts assisted by Stanley Hudelson and Lenna Mae Delagrange.

The presentation, "What a Life," was a three-act comedy concerning the numerous problems of high school students struggling through the adolescent age. Two complete casts, consisting of fifteen members each, gave separate performances. The principal parts were taken by Elaine Rogawski, Joan Arnold, Patricia Schnieders, Eileen Abbott, Ruth Rademaker, Pauline Winebrenner, Thomas Kesterson, Bernard Gotta, Robert Drennan, Jack Burlage, Jim Robinson, and Paul Runyan. Carol Widmann and Jim Funck were in charge of publicity.

SENIOR PROM

As we look back over our last year, we remember one of the happiest events of that time—the Senior Prom on May 22. We enjoyed even the hours of anxiety before, and of course the all too few hours of dancing to the shadowy strains of popular songs.

Our class decided on a "Summertime Down South" theme with the song "Summertime" as the opening selection. The prom was held at the Valencia Gardens Ball Room, which was turned into a southern plantation with cotton, flowers and white picket fences by the decoration committee.

The queen, Carol Widmann, attended by six other senior girls, was crowned by the class president. The program, hall, ticket and door committees worked unceasingly to make this, the Senior Prom of C. C.'s charter class, a thing to remember—and they succeeded.

Seated: Roslyn Didier, Patricia Kilkelly, Laurie Moushey, Dorothy Molitor, Pauline Winebrenner, Ann Adang, Margy Weber.

On Floor: Gene Lennart, Bernard Jansen, Basil Arend.

Here the students like to come to spend a period or more during the day browsing among the various papers and magazines provided for their enjoyment and interest.

At any period of the day one sees students busily engaged in writing research themes or inspecting the well-stocked shelves of books, but the last period of the day is especially busy because a majority of students are free at that time.

The student library staff is always willing to help any one needing aid, and to answer such questions as, "Where are the biographies?" and "Where can I find something on . . . ?", or "Who wrote . . . ?"

This year something new was required of all students. They signed an application and then received a card on which was kept a record of books drawn from the library.

CIVICS CLUB OFFICERS

Seated: Dorothy Molitor, vice-President; Jack Arnold, president; Phyllis Braun, secretary.

Standing: Jack Soshea, Rosemary Fuhs, and Lucille Hartman, executive committee; Father Gollner and Sister Laurence, Moderators.

CIVICS CLUB

A step forward in the progress of Central Catholic was the initiation of a Civics Club in January under the guidance of Father Gollner and Sister Laurence. It has achieved success in aiding our students to become clear-thinking, well-informed citizens of tomorrow. All members take active part in discussions and debates at the bi-monthly meetings, and enjoy a social meeting once a semester.

The year's program, as formed by the Executive Committee, was titled "WHAT THE WAR MEANS TO US". Discussions were conducted on such subjects as: "The Drafting of Women," "Constructive Criticism of the Government During Wartime," and "Independence of American and British Possessions."

This club hopes to continue its meetings throughout the summer months which is proof that it has instilled in its members a deep interest in civic affairs.

L A T I N C L U B

In the second year of its infancy, the Latin Club of Central Catholic has progressed rapidly. Under the helpful guidance of its moderator, Father Leonard Cross, it has proved itself in many ways one of the most outstanding organizations here at C. C. Although the primary purpose of this club is to promote the cultural use of the Latin language, it has also delved into social functions.

In December the members donated groceries which were, in turn, packed and delivered to two needy families.

A series of pictures of the fall of Troy, representing the murals witnessed by Aeneas as he wandered about Dido's temple on his arrival in Carthage, were drawn by members. These were displayed in the latter part of March at the State Latin Conference in Muncie. Central Catholic was well represented at this conference by Father Cross and several students.

These activities were brought to a close with a May Dance jointly sponsored by the Latin Club and Dramatic Club.

Officers elected early in the year were: president, Pete Kuttner; vice-president, Margaret Kelley; secretary, Monica Lomont; treasurer, Dave Hipkind.

THE CAMERA CLUB

With Father Manoski as their moderator, a group of photographically-minded students got together and formed the new Camera Club, which has completed its first year as a great success.

A number of monthly contests were held during the year and some excellent photographs were turned in by ambitious students. Each member of the group was given something to do. Each was put in competition with his fellow members and after a contest was over, the student contributing the best material was given his well deserved attention and credit, with helpful advice given to the runners-up on how they could win the next time. These contests were alternated with good, interesting photo-entertainment and education in the form of lectures, demonstrations and talks by acknowledged authorities. A particularly interesting and educational lecture was given to the Camera Club early in February by Parker Dunham, one of Fort Wayne's better camera enthusiasts. These lectures were very beneficial for all who attended them, for photography is like everything else; you've got to learn it before you can practice it.

In this changing world of ours where some new and fascinating development is announced every day, we, as amateur photographers, are liable to overlook many things. We have learned that any photographer will get some results if he simply loads a camera with film, finds a subject, points the lens, and snaps the shutter. However, if he is to practice photographs on a large scale, if he wishes to make money at it, or wants to reach the heights of amateur exhibition work, he has to learn the fundamentals first. There could not be a better way to acquire these primary essentials than to belong to the Central Catholic Camera Club and take an active part in its fine work, namely, that of contributing pictures to the two student publications, the Shamrock and the Echo.

THE FRENCH CLUB

Under the able guidance of Sidney O'Connor, president, Martha Wemhoff, secretary, and Geraldine O'Rourke, treasurer, the French Club has progressed rapidly after two years of organization.

During class every other Friday the regular meetings are held, at which time reports and topics of French interest are given by two or more members. A French newspaper, La Vie, is also read by the class.

Sister Mary Ellen, faculty adviser of the club, assisted the members, composed of three boys and eleven girls, in their activities throughout the year. Making helpful contributions to the school Red Cross chapter was one of these outstanding projects.

To further interest in the club, the members initiated the first year French class into their organization the last of April, and they are hoping for a continuation of past efforts.

Seated: Joan Hughes, Mary Jane Berghoff, Martha Wemhoff, Sidney O'Connor, Helen Callahan, Geraldine O'Rourke, Pat McDonald.

Standing: Ann Adang, Elaine Schlebecker, Ervin Armstrong, Sister Mary Ellen, Robert Larimore, Joan McArdle, Martha Crow.

A Page of Firsts

During February, Catholic Press Month, Roslyn Didier won the $25.00 Defense Bond for her essay on "What the Catholic Press Means to Me." The presentation was made late in April by Mr. Adolph Keller, representing the Knights of Columbus, who sponsored the contest.

In April, the Junior and Senior Oratory Contest eliminations were held. Although the juniors fought hard, both posts were won by seniors. Ralph Schimmele and Patricia Drussel were the final victorious seniors.

Central Catholic's Red Cross chapter has acquired an A-1 reputation in its first year of existence. Each student contributed at different intervals to their home room collections to aid the projects which they had undertaken. The boys added their help to the knitters by supplying money for yarn. In April a county-wide Red Cross exhibition was held in which Central Catholic won first place over all the city schools.

Athletics

Our Coach

This year a new mentor, Joe Vogele, was put at the reins of our athletic department. Upon his arrival he proceeded to build up one of the best football teams C. C. has ever had and then he brought forth a basketball team which captured the highly coveted State Catholic Championship. In his quiet way he accomplished a feat which would be envied by any rival coach and has set a record which would be hard for any coach to equal. We wish him still greater success at C. C. and congratulate him on his splendid performance.

PURPOSE OF THE ATHLETIC DEPARTMENT

There is one specific purpose for having an athletic department in Central Catholic High School—to produce boys and girls of character who will go out and be better Catholics and better citizens. There could be no better opportunity in the experience of either a boy or a girl for acquiring the power of self-control than in athletic competition. To be able to observe rules and regulations in the emotional excitement of an intense game or a close contest; to choose under such conditions between fair or unfair means and to act on the choice, demands more than a mere knowledge of right and wrong. It requires the trained power and habit of acting on such knowledge—a power and habit that counts immensely for character.

If the love of fair play, a sense of true moral values, and above all, the power and habit of will to act on moral principles can be developed in our students, it will serve immeasurably for the good of the community.

The experience of competitive play is urged on the students because competition has so large a place in life. No matter who you are or where you live, no matter whether you engage in social life, in industry, or in business, you are sure to find yourself in strenuous competition. This situation is the same everywhere, and all of us will sooner or later become involved in it. All students should therefore practice competitive play in one way or another, and in that way learn the rules of the game and become trained for competition in life.

Our athletic department realizes the importance of competition in the activities of the students. They know that the competitive instinct is so strong in youth that no other type of play will stimulate interest and effort in a like degree. The desire to achieve superiority and then to exhibit that superiority is universal and powerful. School life suppresses habits of activity to such an extent that competition is absolutely necessary to counteract the deadening effect of routine.

Father Wirtz

Too much credit cannot be given to Father Wirtz for his untiring efforts in promoting the athletic activities of Central Catholic High School. While he has been here, our teams have won three state and two national championships besides making a creditable showing in football. Father Wirtz has always stimulated a spirit of loyalty, self-control, and sportsmanship in all of our athletes and we students sincerely hope that he will be our athletic director for many years to come that he might continue his fine work.

If Central Catholic's 1941 football team wasn't the best the school ever produced, it certainly was the hardest-fighting group of boys ever to play for the purple and gold. The fighting spirit of the Irish never dampened even when defeat seemed inevitable. This determination was rewarded with a winning percentage for the season, the team having won four games, losing three and tying one. Coach Joe Voegle and the Fighting Irish are to be congratulated, for while they won no championships in football, they proved that they possessed that which counts in the end—grit and courage.

Converting two fumbles into touchdowns, the Irish of Central Catholic launched their 1941 football season under their new Coach, Joe Voegle, with a 12 to 0 victory over South Bend Central Catholic. The opponents never threatened to score at any time, and were unable to move inside the Central Catholic 40-yard stripe.

North Side, after being undefeated the year before, won a hard-earned 12 to 0 victory over an inspired band of fighting Irish. C. C. was a constant threat and the Redskins had to use all their man power to hold down their rivals. The Irish more than lived up to advance notices and this was one of their best played games of the season.

Central Catholic defeated Hammond Catholic, 13 to 12, nosing out this victory on the strength of an extra point after touchdown by Bob Huttinger while Hammond failed to convert after both its touchdowns. C. C. scored both its touchdowns on passes from Jim Miller to Bob Luther.

The Irish next went to Decatur where they swept through the Yellow Jackets with a 43 to 6 victory. After scoring in the opening minutes, C. C. turned on the power to run up a large score on their opponents.

Then came the important city series game with South Side who had been undefeated and unscored on till this time. However, the Archers had to go all out to escape defeat and it wasn't until the 33 to 0 defeat. Irish reserves took over at the end of the first quarter after the varsity had chalked up a 19-point lead, and they scored regularly in the final half.

A South Bend eleven that proved to be much tougher than C. C. expected drove to a 19 to 6 victory over the Irish. The game was played on a snow-covered field and the Irish, weakened a lot by injuries, were unable to hold down the Lions. As we see it though—"something new has been added." Watch C. C. go!

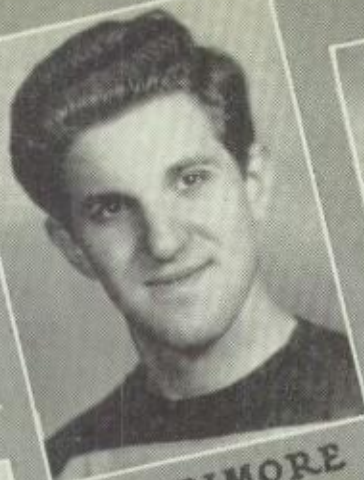

fourth quarter that they were able to rally their forces for a touch-down drive that enabled them to tie the score at 6 to 6 after the Irish had taken the lead earlier in the game.

The Irish turned in a fine game against the Central Tigers and were hardly outplayed in being defeated 14 to 6. Sitko provided the spark which enabled the Tigers to win, scoring both touch-downs and both extra points.

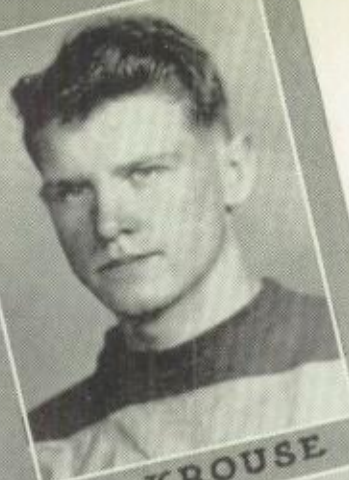

Central Catholic outclassed Howe Military Academy in every department to hand the cadets a BASKETBALL...

This year our basketball team brought to our school the state Catholic Championship for the third time in four years, thereby gaining permanent possession of the Bishop Noll-Bishop Ritter Trophy.

At the beginning of the season our team received two disappointments, the permanent loss of Alton Gladieux and little use of Bob Walker who was suffering from a leg injury. Nevertheless the team went out and fought hard in every game losing several of them by one point margins.

The season ended with a record of 10 wins and 9 losses.

Despite the season's record, our team went into the tourney as one of the favorites and before the final game ended they had proved that they were true C. C. champions. In their first game they beat a fine Huntington team 39-28, bringing themselves into the semi-finals against Evansville, last year's champions. Revenge was sweet and the Irish pulled out a 45-37 win. The final game can be best explained with the words of the coach, "They won because they were true champions." Staging a Merriwell finish the Irish burned up the floor with their basketball shooting, winning in the last few minutes 41-37.

Thus the team ended their basketball season after adding more glory to their school's record.

OUR STUDENT MANAGERS

Very much credit is due to our fine student managers—John Shovlin, James Bobay, and Phil Devire, three students of whom we can be proud. Whether a school is well-known, popular, and active, or obscure, unsought, and inert, depends on the students who attend it. The faculty can instruct, guide, and advise expertly but they are not as practical a symbol of a school's achievement as the results which the school produces. This responsibility, concentrated on the shoulders of the students, demands of them the first requirement of the unified school, something which makes mediocre teams win championships, something which causes students to take interest in activities, something which is more than ephemeral enthusiasm, something known as "spirit." There is no lack of this quality in our student managers. These boys deserve all the credit that can be given to them for their conscientious efforts in managing and co-operating with the athletic department of Central Catholic High School.

MONOGRAM CLUB

Twenty athletes were awarded monograms for their excellent achievements in football and basketball. Through hard work and constant practice they were able to provide us with good teams in football and basketball. They rightly earned the honor of wearing a "C" monogram.

Of the 20 members of the Monogram Club, 7 will return next year to carry on the athletic feats of this school.

Two of the reasons why our teams were so successful were the captains. Tom Offerle led the football squad through its season while Dick Krouse, captained the basketball team.

When playing hard fought games C. C. players never lose sight of good sportsmanship, a trait for which they are well known.

We cannot thank these athletes enough for the entertainment and thrills with which they provided us, but we want them to know that we are grateful.

INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL

Since the Community Center was not available this year, there was no regular league established; but at the end of the varsity basketball season, a league was organized between the Freshmen and Sophomore Homerooms. In the Freshmen division, Room 103 led at the end of the schedule while three teams tied for second place. In the Sophomore classes, Room 306 took the title and then went on to beat Room 103 for the Freshmen-Sophomore Championship, 25 to 17.

Instead of having a tournament between the Juniors and Seniors, all four classes were combined in an elimination tournament.

In the upper bracket, Room 302 came out on top, defeating Room 402 in an overtime battle, 20-18. After trailing throughout the game, Room 402 went ahead with three minutes to go, only to be tied by Room 302. As the gun sounded, ending the game, the teams were deadlocked at 18 all. With 40 seconds to go in the overtime, Room 302 scored the winning basket and then stopped all attempts made by Room 402 to score.

Room 308 came out on top in the lower bracket, beating Room 207, by the score of 17 to 14.

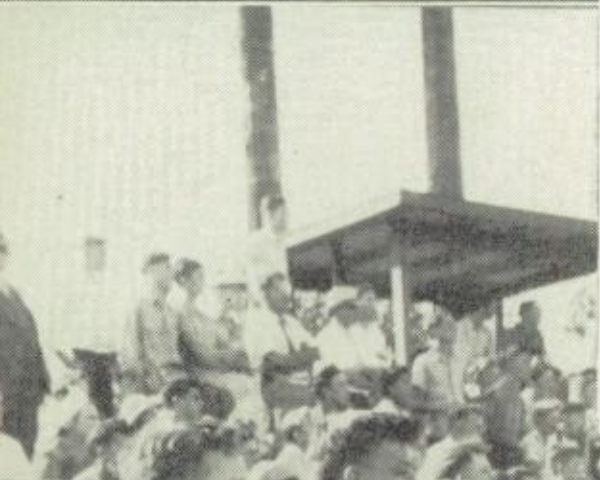

In the final game, Room 302 put on a strong last half drive to beat the small team from Room 308, 23-15. At the half the score was 9-8 in favor of Room 303, but height and experience told the story in the fourth quarter, and 302 pulled steadily away until they held a comfortable lead as the game ended.

THE GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

There is a certain kind of surplus energy bound up in some of our high school girls that can find satisfactory outlet only in athletics. I do not know of anything to surpass that tingling, glowing feeling that surges through you in the heat of a game. Something of the same exhilaration is felt after you have been walking at a good rate of speed for, say a half hour. You are carried along on your own momentum. Your whole being swings along with a rhythm that makes for a good time.

And great fun it was that the members of the Girls' Athletic Association had on their first hike of the year down to New Haven, Indiana, and back. Twenty of the girls donned their hiking clothes and proceeded to the town where they did full justice to their sumptuously packed lunch baskets. At twilight, weary, but nothing daunted, they arrived home to be greeted with open arms.

G.A.A. OFFICERS

First Row: Rita Vonderhaar, Point Secretary; Sally App, Secretary-Treasurer.

Second Row. Juanita Martin, Publicity Manager; Miss Heighway; Helen Hagaman, President.

Third Row: Helene Henry, Vice-President.

The outstanding activity for January was a Volleyball Tournament. The juniors were victors over the sophomores.

March 16, 17, and 18 saw some closely contested games in the G.A.A. Basketball Tournament. The seniors had all they could do to nose out a 29-27 victory over the juniors. The sophomores, too, proved that they were able to hold their own. Edie O'Rourke, Betty Ellen Murphy, Katie Saxton, and Dean O'Rourke starred for their respective classes.

Many hours of effort both in practice and actual participation in the games, go to the winning of points in the G.A.A. For these points certain insignias are given. It takes 350 such points to earn a triangle, 80 points for numerals, and 1500 points for a large "C". A new feature this year is the awarding of stripes to be worn on sweaters to signify the number of years of membership in the G.A.A. Winners of triangles were as follows: Mary Saxton, Gene Keller, Mary Becker, Ruth Nichter, Joan Kell, Elizabeth Hoagsbury, Barbara Bohahoon, Mildred Westrick, Ruth Girardot, Norma McKimmey, Eileen Hilker, Monica Engle, Ruth Sordet, Catherine Beyer, Marie Ann Lauer, Virginia Schlumbohm, Eileen Halstein, Joan Jansen, Jean McNulty, Sally Ann Murray, Theresa Hook, Helen Bubb, Betty Drennan, Mary Alice Wyatt, Mary Ann Rauner, Marjorie Perry, Delores Mommer, Jacqueline Weber, Rita VonderHarr, Helen Vonderharr, Lois Kintz, and Esther Renner.

G.A.A. SPORT HEADS

Betty Ellen Murphy, Virginia Schlumbohm, Geraldine O'Rourke, Kathleen Saxton, Rita Vonder Haar, Edith O'Rourke, Ruth Redmerski.

Those who are very proudly displaying their letters are Phyllis Moulin, Virginia Schlumbohm, Dean O'Rourke, Sally App, Helen Hagemann, Juanita Martin, and Mary Ann Lutz.

Approximately two hundred girls of C. C. have taken advantage of the chance given them to round out their education physically as well as spiritually and mentally.

The officers who have been in charge this year are Helen Hagemann, president; Helene Henry, vice-president, Sally App secretary, Rita Vonder Harr, point-secretary; Juanita Martin, Publicity Manager.

The year closed as it began with a hike on Ascension Thursday, May 14.
